

Ion LUNGU

AFEER, Executive Director

With over 40 years of activity in the energy field, Prof. Ion LUNGU is a specialist with extensive experience, a professional and an opinion leader, being asked for his expertise both nationally and internationally.

Fully committed to his work, Mr. Lungu is a man of integrity, respected and appreciated by colleagues from all over the energy sector, as well as by the authorities, a sensitive person with a noble character, on whom you can base and from whom you can learn every day.

He was, for 4 years, president of the National Authority for Energy Regulations (ANRE), between 2000-2004. Through his decisions, he contributed to the formation and proper functioning of the energy market in Romania. He has held senior positions in some of the most important companies in the field, such as Renel, Electrica and CEZ.

For over 12 years, Mr. Ion Lungu has been part of the Romanian Energy Suppliers Association (AFEER), ensuring that the interests of suppliers – members of the Association – are defended and promoted and the mission of the association, facilitating the institutional dialog, is fulfilled.

Also, Mr. Lungu had a dynamic academic activity, at the University of Bucharest and “Valahia” University of Targoviste. He is currently a professor at the Faculty of Business Administration with teaching in foreign languages – FABIZ, from ASE.

He is an author or co-author in five technical publications and 125 scientific papers in the field of high voltage technology, the use of electricity and regulations in the energy sector.

Passionate about knowledge and with a permanent desire to be involved, Mr. Lungu is / was a member of other well-known national and international organizations, including: The Association for Energy policies of Romania (APER), the ERRA Regulators Association – ERRA Energy Presidium, CIGRE, the Director College of APER, the Romanian National Committee of the World Energy Council (CNR-CME).

Prof. Lungu was awarded the national order “For Merit” in the rank of Knight.