

PETRU RUȘEȚ

Managing Director, Siemens Energy

Petru Ruset has more than 30 years of experience in the main companies operating in the Romanian energy fields. He is currently Managing Director of Siemens Energy and joined Siemens in 2007 as head of the company's energy-related divisions.

Between 1989 and 2007 he worked for the electricity transmission and distribution company RENEL, Transelectrica and SMART, holding coordination and management positions.

Mr. Ruset is a doctor of electrotechnics, with the thesis "Optimization of the operating regime of medium voltage networks with neutral treated with compensating coils" (2012).

Member of important bodies in the field of energy, such as CIGRE, WEC and IEEE, Mr. Ruset started his academic involvement as a guest professor of the University Politehnica of Bucharest, Faculty of Energy, in 2015, and since 2016 he is a guest professor at UPB.

Petru Ruset graduated from the Faculty of Electrical Engineering at the Polytechnic Institute "Traian Vuia" Timisoara (1989), Management and marketing course "Carl Duisberg" Germany (1996-1997), Advanced Management course Felda ngen Siemens Germany (2009).