Valeriu BINIG

Scientific Counsellor, WEC/RNC

Valeriu is a power engineer with some 40 years of experience. A retired C level utility company executive, he is a Scientific Counsellor of the National Romanian Committee for the World Energy Congres, Chairman of the Advisory Board of the Energy Policy Group. Member of the Board of Directors of the Romanian Energy Efficiency Fund and Chairman of the Board of Directors of Eximprod Engineering. Former power plant operation engineer, research assistant, lecturer in engineering, top utility company executive and administrator, investment officer, investment banking services provider, M&A and privatisation consultant, management consultant as Big 4 Director and Partner. Has coordinated multicountry assistance programs for the energy sector, former European Commission Delegation Task Manager for Energy, Nuclear Safety, Industrial Policy. Has coordinated major privatisation projects in the Romanian energy sector, the assistance for the elaboration of the National Energy Strategy (2016) as well as assistance for utility companies in Smart Transformation, elaboration of hedging strategies, Smart Data strategies, etc. Regular speaker at national and international conferences, with numerous published papers. Holds a PhD in Power Systems Reliability. Energy MBA lecturer.