Ashot Kocharian

Executive Manager of BSEC PERMIS

Armenian diplomat and international relations expert with extensive experience in multilateral diplomacy, international organizations, economic cooperation, and bilateral relations.

Graduated from the Yerevan Institute of Russian and Foreign Languages and pursued postgraduate studies at the Institute of Philosophy and Law of the National Academy of Sciences of Armenia.

Graduate of the Vienna Diplomatic Academy special diplomatic courses. Completed also diplomatic training at the Netherlands Institute of International Relations Clingendael, the Hague.

Held various senior positions at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Armenia, including Director of the International Organizations Department, Head of the UN and OSCE Division, and Director of the Bilateral and Multilateral Economic Cooperation Department. Also served as Press Secretary to the President of Armenia.

Served as Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of Armenia to India concurrently covering Sri Lanka, Indonesia, Nepal and Malaysia (2005-2009) and Lebanon (2009-2016).

Currently serves as Executive Manager of BSEC PERMIS, overseeing Energy and Emergency Assistance areas. Previously represented Armenia as Senior Official to BSEC and was member of the Steering Committee of ICRANet.

Candidate of Philosophical Sciences, author of publications on international relations and human rights. Fluent in Armenian, English, and Russian, with working knowledge of German.