

Burkhard von KIENITZ

COO processes at the Headquarter of E.ON SE

Burkhard von Kienitz is an experienced energy expert. He manages COO processes at the Headquarter of E.ON SE and works directly for the CEO, Dr. Leo Birnbaum. He gives lectures at the Technical University of Munich, holds mandates in national and international organizations and is supervisory Board Member of several international Companies.

Burkhard has worked in various countries and functions in the energy sector over the past decades. He is an Officer at the World Energy Council (WEC) and Chair for cross regional cooperation. Additionally, he is active as member in the finance committee of the global organization.

