

Academician Ioan DUMITRACHE

Secretary General- Romanian Academy

He graduated from the University POLITEHNICA of Bucharest in 1962 where he received in 1970 the PhD title in Control Engineering. His studies were accompanied by multiple specialization programs carried out in the USA (1969, 1971, 1991, 1994), in Germany, France, etc. Through his entire academic career, since the foundation of the Department of Automatic Control, he received an Assistant Professor position in 1967, Associate Professor in 1974 and Full Professor in 1982.

His leading positions within the University POLITEHNICA of Bucharest include: Vice-Dean (1976 - 1984) and Dean (1984-1990) of the Faculty of Automatic Control and Computers, Head of the Department of Automatic Control and Systems Engineering (1996-2012), Rector (2000-2004), member (1984-2012) and invited member (2012-present) of the Senate.

From 2003, professor Ioan Dumitrache is member of the Romanian Academy and from 2018 its General Secretary. He is also member of the Romanian Technical Sciences Academy from 1999 and from 2014 to 2022 he was the president of the Automatic Control and Electronics section.