

Thaddeus ANIM-SOMUAH

Chair- Future Energy Leaders at World Energy Council

Thaddeus is the Chair of Future Energy Leaders at World Energy Council. Currently he works professionally as Senior Environmental Manager Europe & Asia at Bodycote, where leads initiatives to improve the operations sustainability. Prior to that he has operations sustainability experience as Global Senior Manager Sustainability at Philips and manufacturing leadership experience including decarbonisation in roles such as Engineering Manager Projects at Croda and Cargill. In addition to his current role at Bodycote, he serves on Board of Trustees of World Energy Council and on the Supervisory Boards of World Vision Netherlands & Triodos Investment Management.

