Olivian SAVIN

Executive Director, FEL Romania

Olivian SAVIN is Country Manager at Nano Energies Romania, working on aggregation and ancillary services. He previously worked as a senior regulatory specialist, energy advisor, and board member for energy startups. He holds a PhD in energy engineering completed in France at EDF where he developed methods to assess power plant costs and reliability assessment, earned an international master's degree in Grenoble and graduated valedictorian from the University Politehnica of Bucharest. At EDF. He is currently the Executive Director of FEL Romania, part of WEC, recognized in Forbes 30 Under 30 Romania and Young Energy Ambassador 2025 at European Comission.