

Septimiu STOICA

President of the AGM – Romanian Commodity Exchange

Septimiu Stoica has extensive professional experience in the fields of the stock market, finance, law and academia. He is a graduate of Automation and Computers, as well as Law, holds a master's degree in Law and European Institutions and a doctorate in International Finance.

Throughout his career, he has worked as an engineer and senior scientific researcher gr. II within the Institute for Computing and Informatics, lawyer, associate professor, arbitrator, mediator and conciliator.

He has held numerous leadership positions on the Romanian stock market, including Executive Director and President of the Romanian Commodity Exchange, President and Vice President of the Bucharest Stock Exchange, President of the Rasdaq Electronic Exchange, Vice President of the Brokers Association, President of the Corporate Governance Institute and President of the Arbitration Chamber of the BVB. He has also been president-general manager of several financial brokerage companies.

Currently, Septimiu Stoica is the President of the General Assembly of Shareholders of the Romanian Commodity Exchange.

